Dr. Satishji Chaturvedi

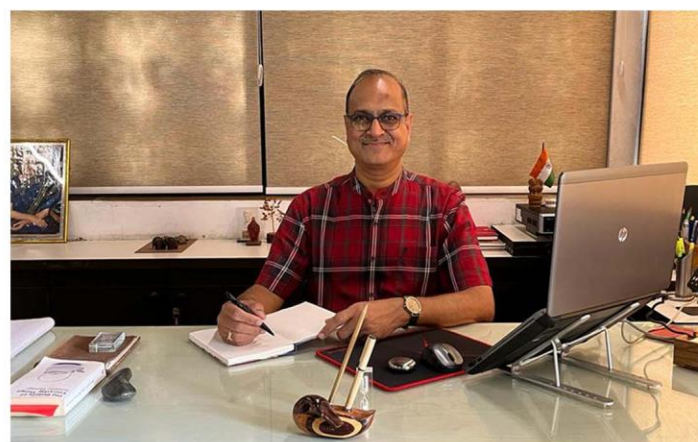

FROM DIRECTOR'S DESKa testament to our efforts

Today's architecture has become very complex and incorporates allied fields and science like never before. The adage, "Jack of all, master of one" has never been more relevant. Understanding of science and arts & their incorporation into architectural education is the real challenge of today. We at PIADS have taken up this challenge and are trying to impart architectural education which respects these and tries to go a few steps beyond it. Our newsletter "Reflection" will be a step in this direction. The newsletter will be a testament to our efforts toward imparting bespoke architectural education and also a roadmap for the holistic maturity of students and teachers alike. I wish the editorial team all the best in this enriching endeavour.

- Prof. Habib Khan

FROM PRINCIPAL'S DESK Step within. Step out. Step ahead.

Multi-faceted, PIADS embraces curricular, co-curricular and extra-curricular in equal measure, for we involve in IQ and EQ in equal measure. This initiative of REFLECTION, our Newsletter to express our worth, will give each member of our family an opportunity to contribute to the culture of PIADS. Let's welcome our own creative farm, a farm which cultivates true essence of wholesome learning – ACADEMIX, and step ahead.

Aye Malik Tere Bande Hum

The song is from the best cult classic movie DO AANKHEN BARAH HAATH directed by V. Shantaram (1975) which is an emotional journey manifesting humanity to be above everything. It is sung by our legendary singer Lata Mangeshkar, penned down by Bharat Vyas, and composed by Vasant Desai. It pleads to God for the strength to be virtuous and implores to bestow us with the karma that strides us on the path of righteousness and refrains us from evil.

PONDICHERRY

Pondicherry is a wonderful place to visit. Pondicherry is not just about beaches and food but also has beautiful streets, mesmerizing buildings. The most amazing part about Pondicherry is that one part of the city is painted with bright colours & the other part, usually known as French Colony is painted white. But our trip did not stop just at Pondicherry, we went to Auroville, there we visited Shri Aurobindo ashram and Auroville Earth Institute.

CANVAS PAINTING

Since the present generation has been handed on an independent India, they seem unaware of the struggles faced by our country to reach this present-day feat. This event brought together PIADS and other students from various schools in Nagpur and helped them depict their analogy of freedom. Under this event, the students painted a 75 feet long canvas based on the theme of celebrating 75 years of independence. This helped in inculcating a sense of patriotism in students through painting their interpretation of "Azadi".
